Young Children in the Child Welfare System: What the Infant/Early Childhood Mental Health Community Needs to Know

An evening with Evelyn Wotherspoon, MSW, RSW

Join CoAIMH for our Annual Business Meeting and keynote presentation:

Tuesday, December 1, 2009
6:00 PM – 8:00 PM

The Children's Hospital – Mt. Yale Conference Room
13123 East 16th Avenue; Aurora, CO 80045

Evelyn Wotherspoon is a social worker and Zero to Three fellow who is an infant mental health consultant for the Calgary Health Region. She has spent over 25 years working with high risk families as a child welfare investigator, supervisor and clinician. She has contributed to the development of a framework for infant mental health consultation with the high risk environment of a child protection service. Ms. Wotherspoon will share insights on the social-emotional development of infants and toddlers in foster care, emotional trauma in infancy, and infant mental health consultation in child welfare.

Free for COAIMH members - $10 for others.
